

The Chronicle

St Andrew's, the world's oldest youth club

Autumn/Winter 2017/18

150 YEARS

Many of our members live locally in Westminster and come from homes on very tight budgets

Our mission is to give young people of diverse backgrounds a sense of belonging and fun, in a safe and attractive environment, where they develop self-confidence, self-respect and respect for others and, thereby their ability to contribute to society as good citizens. Here are some of our recent highlights, with an introduction by Charlotte, volunteer of the year 2017:

Hi! I have known about St Andrew's for 18 years. I grew up round here and have seen how expensive this area has become for local people. I started volunteering last year as I wanted to give something back to the Club. I have always loved football and wanted to encourage younger girls to develop my love for the sport. I am so impressed with my girls' team – over the year we've trained and played friendlies and their skills are really getting good.

St Andrew's is an amazing place. I tell everyone I know about it, as it just quietly gets on with providing a safe and secure space for young people, not to mention all the great activities that I see going on every week when I come for training.

4 week Summer Project: opportunities to learn new skills, keep fit, socialise and have fun

6 week special effects make up: exploring potential talents and interests in the world of fake cuts, bullet wounds, burns and character creations

Message from our Chair

St Andrew's Club now approaches 151 years! Thank you to all our valued supporters old and new for enabling us to continue to deliver our varied youth programmes to our local membership at a time when distraction and positive role models are needed more than ever. A challenging economic climate and strong competition for funding means we have to shout loud and clear about our important work. Help us spread the word. Thank you all.

Elizabeth Cuffy

Jackie Gifford, former member Interview by John Rhodes, Trustee

Jackie Gifford made history in the 1960s. She and three school friends Rita, Maureen and Kathy plucked up the courage to ask St Andrew's Boys Club leader, Hugh Dean, that girls be allowed to become members. After a little thought, and almost exactly one hundred years after the Club started, they got the right answer. St Andrew's YOUTH Club has never looked back and now over 150 St Andrew's members are girls.

Jackie lived round the corner in Monck Street, in the now demolished Portcullis Theatre where her father was the caretaker. She says "The Club opened up new worlds to me." And she has photos to prove it. Pictures of Club dances with brilliant 20ft paintings celebrating the psychedelic sixties pop culture. Sailing on the Thames. Walking round Parliament Square collecting money for the Club. Weekends pony trekking in Devon and rock climbing in Wales.

She says she was not very good at racquet sports, but it didn't stop her meeting and then marrying David Gifford, the badminton coach. They are now retired and live in Walthamstow. Her best friend Kate who she met at the Club now lives in Australia, but they are still in touch.

She said the Club made a really big difference to their lives. Little things like Len and other Club friends showing her and Kate how to order an Indian meal. "These are still powerful memories. The Club really helped give me confidence in my life."

A gift of sustainability

The John Scott Fund is a growing fund, thanks to friends and supporters. Named after a previous Chairman, John Scott, who gave great support to the Club and whose positive influence is still felt today, the John Scott Fund is an independent charity, with a particular mission to provide a degree of long term financial security to the Club. The Fund is a segregated account held within the Master Charitable Trust of Messrs Hoare Trustees (part of Hoare's Bank). If you would like to make a gift today, or a gift in your Will to help young people now and future generations at St Andrew's Club, please contact annette@standrewsclub.com to find out more.

"It can be tough for a young person growing up in South Westminster. Around 700 members depend on us each year in our 'neutral' environment, that isn't part of any one housing estate. Help us give every young person in Westminster, and many beyond, the chance to thrive and give back to society through the varied youth programmes at St Andrew's Club – a local charity and the world's oldest youth club, which has been making a priceless contribution to the local community for 150 years." Elizabeth Cuffy, Chairman

"Thank you for being part of our community. We want to be sure we can keep in touch with you about the impact of our work in the local community. It would really hurt us if the new Data Protection laws in May 2018 mean we can't contact you to send you this regular Chronicle as well as invitations to our various events. We will be writing to all our supporters in the New Year giving a link on our website where you can confirm how you would like to hear from us and what you would like to hear about. Thank you."
